How long will it take?

The International General Certificate will involve a minimum of 65 taught hours and approximately 40 hours of private study and background reading.

Certification

The IG has two unit assessments:

- IG1 - An open book examination to assess what you know. This is scenario based and will include a closing interview, you will be asked questions about your submission.
- IG2 - A practical risk assessment to assess what you can do (3 hours). Learners will complete a risk assessment and develop an action plan for their workplace.

Who is the course for?

Relevant to every workplace, the NEBOSH International General Certificate is ideal for managers, supervisors, and anybody with health and safety management responsibilities.

Anyone can book the course and further their understanding of health and safety. However, learners must be prepared to commit time to the course and revision time in preparation for the exam.

Learner Eligibility

All courses will be presented in English, so all delegates will need to speak, understand, and write in English.

NEBOSH recommends that learners undertaking this qualification should reach a minimum standard of English equivalent to an International English Language Testing System (IELTS) score of 6.0 or higher in IELTS tests.

After reading the course entry requirements, do you feel you have a suitable standard of English to complete this course?

If you selected yes, we would welcome you to sign up for the course. However, if you answered no or are unsure about anything, please use the contact information listed below to contact us.
